

Tejina Mangat

Call year: 1990

Email: tejina.mangat@hailshamchambers.com

Phone: 020 7643 5000

Tejina specialises in clinical negligence. Her practice also includes coroners' inquests and solicitors' negligence claims arising from the conduct of clinical negligence claims. Before being called to the Bar, Tejina worked as a junior doctor in Accident and Emergency Medicine. She remains on the General Medical Register.

Practice Profile

Clinical Negligence

Tejina is ranked by The Legal 500 and Chambers UK as a leading junior in clinical negligence. She acts mainly for Claimants, and has undertaken cases involving the full range of clinical specialisms. She regularly deals with multi-million pound cases involving brain damage. She has also dealt with cases concerning dental, optometric, and chiropractic negligence.

Tejina's practice also includes coroners' inquests, substantial personal injuries claims and solicitors' negligence claims arising from the conduct of clinical negligence claims.

Further Information

Year of call: 1990

Specialist areas: clinical negligence, personal injury, inquests

Education: BSc (cl 1) MBBS

Committees: Former committee member Professional negligence Bar Association.

Recent cases

Makin v E. Midlands Strategic Health Authority - obstetric brain injury. Settlement approved April 2009, lump sum £1.8m plus periodical payments

Blyth v N. Bristol NHS Trust, negligence in surgery case, settlement £475,000

Jones (a child) & Brighton & Sussex University Hospitals NHS Trust [2007] – obstetric brain injury (£4.79m). Settlement approved February 2007.

TP (a child) v Gwent Healthcare NHS Trust [2007] – obstetric brain injury (£4m.) Settlement approved April 2007.

Lonczyk v Shropshire & Staffordshire Strategic Health Authority [2007] – obstetric brain injury (lump sum of £1.15m and periodical payments). Settlement approved April 2007.

Samarakoon v Whipps Cross University Hospital NHS Trust [2007] – Fatal Accidents Act claim arising from failure to diagnose cancer (£370,000). Settlement approved April 2007.

Publications and lectures

Member of the editorial panel for Facts and Figures. Tables for the Calculation of Damages. PNBA

What others say

"Tejina Mangat is medically qualified, with interviewees noting that 'her medical knowledge is second to none.' She received further commendation from solicitors who remarked that she is 'bright, conscientious and extremely popular amongst the clients.'" Chambers UK 2010

"The medically qualified and 'absolutely excellent' Tejina Mangat deals with obstetric brain injuries. She is 'straight down the line, spot on in terms of identifying the issues and particularly impressive in her paperwork.'" Chambers UK 2009

Tejina Mangat has been consistently recommended as a leading junior in the field of clinical negligence by both Chambers UK and The Legal 500.

"Former doctor Tejina Mangat, meanwhile, maintains a solid reputation in the field. She is a "thorough and meticulous advocate" and wins further plaudits for her "hardworking and diligent" approach to cases." Chambers UK 2008

"Juniors Jane Tracy Forster and Tejina Mangat continue to distinguish themselves." The Legal 500 2007
